

PYP Exhibition Rubric: Social skills (Group work)

	 Outstanding job!	 Good job	 Okay	 Could be better
Communication	You have worked with all members of your group and helped include everyone to be involved in discussion.	You have worked with other people in your group without excluding anyone.	You worked well with most people in the group but not all.	You could have tried harder to work well with one or more person in the group.
	You shared your ideas without pushing the group to accept them. You encouraged others to share.	You have shared your ideas. You were interested in hearing other people's ideas.	You shared your ideas, although you could have shared more. You asked about some other people's ideas.	You could have shared your ideas more.
	You always made the best choice about which language to communicate in and helped others to do so. You made sure others understood.	You think about the language your group uses. You try to help others understand.	You thought about the language you use and sometimes tried to communicate in another language to help others.	You thought about the language that was easiest for you, but not that was best for everyone.
	You listened actively, responding to what others said. You were not distracted or distracting.	You let other people talk and listen to them without being distracted.	You listened to others most of the time without being distracted.	You found it hard to listen to others without being distracted.
	You also encouraged others to be risk takers.	You were not afraid to share things you weren't sure about (you were a risk-taker).	You contributed some ideas to help the group. You tried to be a risk taker.	You did not contribute enough to group discussion and ideas.
	Workload	You made sure that all decisions were group decisions. You were democratic.	Before you decided to do something, you talked to your group about it.	Sometimes you checked with other people in the group before doing something.
You did your share of the work and helped others when they needed help.		You did your share of the work.	You did some work but you could have done more.	You need to try harder to do a fair amount of the group's work.
You helped keep the group on the right track and to have an optimistic outlook.		You always tried to be optimistic (have a positive attitude).	You were optimistic about some ideas and some things that the group tried.	You see the negative side of things too often – try to think more positively!
You were willing to do extra work when needed. You gave up your own time to do extra.		You have shown commitment. You didn't give up when things were hard. You have always worked your best.	You did what was asked of you, but did not put in extra effort.	You could and should have done more work for the group.
